Turkey’s Dilemma: Investing After Huge Past Out Performance

One Thousand and One day of History

A turkey before & after Thanksgiving:
The History of process over Thousand day tells you nothing about happening next. This naïve projection of the future from the past can applied to anything.

• After a long & huge out performance of a stock which results in gradual build up of investment
• confidence  But the future may be exactly opposite than the expectation build up based on past experience
• Similarly a long & huge under performance despite of good business may exhibit huge out performance in future

<td>Company Specific</td>
<td>Sun Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd.</td>
<td>The stock presents a special situation opportunity as there were worries of investigation outcome over whistle-blower complaint and concerns with respect to pricing of an acquired company. Sun Pharma is known well for its Specialty and Global generics segment with strong presence in the US (10-12 Specialty brands launched). The company reported significant pick-up in sales in 3QFY21 across global markets and managed to launch 25 new drugs in domestic markets in 3Q. The company is also building a pipeline of specialty products and is focusing on adding new markets &amp; more products. With management focus on gaining revenue traction, cost controls/optimizations and business continuity, the company is expected to do well.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Axis Bank Ltd.</td>
<td>The rumoured senior management changes and subsequently a worry of failing strategies at the bank is the special situation in the stock. Axis Bank is one of the largest private sector bank in India offering financial services for personal &amp; corporate banking. The bank’s retail disbursements were at all time high in 3QFY21 with stable NIMs at 3.59% on a QoQ basis. <td>China consumes more than half of world’s Aluminium produce. As China was the epicentre of recent COVID crisis, slowdown fears in Aluminium presented a special opportunity in the stock last year. Hindalco is a large-scale aluminium rolling company and is into aluminium recycling. It reported commendable performance in 3QFY21 due to significant improvement in India Aluminium business supported by higher volumes and better product mix, lower input costs, stability in operations and cost saving actions. The company may do well as the fundamentals remain strong and recovery in auto demand in China &amp; US, may contribute further to its growth.</td>

<td>ONGC</td>
<td>The fall in oil price due to slowdown led by COVID-19 was the special situation in the stock last year. ONGC is a major crude oil and natural gas company in India, contributing around 75% to Indian domestic production. ONGC reported good 3QFY21 numbers driven by better operational results, high crude sales volume and decent gas volume. ONGC is expected to do well as it is a key beneficiary of higher crude price. Also, it may benefit from potential de-regulation of/hike in domestic gas price given that a proposal for the same is under consideration.</td>

<td>Bharti Airtel Ltd.</td>
<td>The pending AGR judgement on deferred payments and one of the players introducing a new post-paid tariff plan was a special situation in the stock. Bharti Airtel is a major telecommunication player which seems well placed to capitalize on industry recovery and gain revenue market from weak players. The company delivered a good set of 3QFY21 numbers due to better execution &amp; market share win across mobile, FTTH enterprise &amp; DTH. It also added to its 4G and postpaid customer base which may help Bharti to better translate tariff hike into ARPU. With the consolidation of telecom sector, fewer players, barriers to new entrants due to high costs, proactive fund raising activities and its scale of operations &amp; business, Bharti is expected to perform well.</td>
